

BIRTH.
 11 14 8

BIRTH.
Henning—October 11, at 8,
 Park, North, Kingstown, Cou

DEATHS.
Dempsey—October 7, at her residence, 10, Main Street, Ballymoney. Lucan.

320, Agnes Street, Winnipeg,
(formerly of Gortnarney, La.)

MILLICAN, BETTY, 90

Why Buses have no Speed

This Court was held on Wednesday before Senator J. G. Leslie, D.L.D., of Memphis, Messrs. P. J. Healy, John Robert F. Crawford, justices, at Jones, R.M. District Inspector McNeill, R.U.C., and M. S. H. C.P.S., were in attendance.

Before proceeding with the bus Bench passed a resolution of sympathy with Mr. Alexander Turner, J.P., for the bereavement he had recently sustained the death of his son. The Chairman the Bench had learned with much and requested the Clerk to con-resolution of sympathy to Mr. T

NO LIGHTS.
For offences against the light regulations, William Kane, Cross Coleraire (two cases), was fined 56d; James Kerr, Skerry East, 5s; Kelly, Skerry East, 1s; James M. Skerry East, 5s; Daniel Carey money, 5s; Samuel Stewart, Tully 6d; and John Torrens, Skerry H. Moore, Tullykittagh, and John Barton, Ballinaldob, each 2s 6d and costs.

BUS DRIVERS FINED
A large number of drivers of

The following fines were imposed: Alexander Angus, 4 Ava Street, £2, with 1s extra costs; Robert Thompson, Ballymore, (two cases) with 28 6d extra costs; his fees were endorsed, and in the second case, without endorsement; David M'Shaughnessy, Templemore Avenue, Belfast, 4 1s 9d extra costs; Frank Hughes, 100, Ballymena, £2; a second case against the same defendant was allowed for four months; Bertie Brown, 100, Ballymena, £2.

In a case against Elias Gibson, Brook Road, Lisburn, the Bench

In a case against Andrew Br. Oldpark Avenue, Belfast, a similar was made—to pay costs of court and extra costs.

In reply to Mr. Healey, J.P., said the buses were not fitted with odometers.

careful and capable drivers, and men knew that there was a speed limit on any part of the road their attention might be detracted from the keeping their eye on the speedometer for the purpose of keeping within the limit, with the result that possibly the District-Inspector McNeill at William Humphreys, 6 Meeting Street, Larne, for driving a hea with trailer attached at 12 miles. Mr. Wm. Currie, solicitor (Messrs Currie & Son), for defendant, o that as the motor lorry was und James R. Nesbitt, Cameron Ballymoney, for driving a heavy 19 miles an hour on the 19th fined 10s and costs.

For allowing flax water to flow into the Clough river, a tributary of the Clough river on August, at the suit of Andrew E. Spector of fisheries, Daniel McKee, camp, was fined £1 10s; Robert Ney, Dunbought, 2s 6d, and Davison, Dundermott, 10s.

The Danvers Regional Education Committee, by Samuel Alexander, attendance officer, summoned Rosston, Rosedernott, for failing to comply with a school attendance order in regard to his child. Defendant was fined $100, having been fined on three previous occasions.

Kilrea and District

As a promising indication of the future of the potato crop it may be mentioned that a tuber grown on the land of Eddie Diamond, Moneysallin, weighed 1 lb. 10 oz.

prentice Boys' L.O.L. 396 was the Orange Hall on Thursday
Br. James Thompson, W.M., pre when the customary busine transacted.

Poultry breeders will be inter know that an experiment has lat was a test at the end of the season, one male bird (Rhode Island) being placed with 100 hens: 13 eggs set, and 13 chickens were hatched which were "roosters" and two Church attracted large congregation. Rev. W. H. Craig, Finvoy Presbyterian Church, and Rev. J. Johnston Magherafel, delivered the addresses. Appropriate music was rendered by the augmented choir, under the leadership of Mr. S. Hanna, Miss M. Kyle, and Miss M. O'Connell.

For the annual harvest thanksgiving service the Third Presbyterian Church was tastefully decorated with flowers, fruit, vegetables and produce. The opening service was dressed by Rev. W. W. Pyp ing and evening services was the Jackson, B.Sc., M.C. (Rand) special music was sung by the choir under the leadership of Mr. William (proctor), with Miss E. Stott on organ. The collections were in aid of church renovation funds.
