COST OF LIVING.

CASE FOR MIDDLEMEN.

Evidence by Wholesale Grocers.

PRICE OF BUTTER AND EGGS.

Mr. J. H. Robb, K.C., M.P., presided at another sitting in Parliament House yesterday of the Departmental Committee on the Cost of Living in Northern Ireland appointed by the Minister of Labour. Evidence was submitted by Messrs. J. Wilson, J. H. Hales, J. Henderson, and J. Hill, representing the Belfast Wholesale Grocers' and Manufacturers' Association.

Mr. Wilson said that a good many people had an impression that the wholesale grocery trade could be disposed of without any inconvenience to the community. Every County and every County Council continued to the abundance and variety of food available for the home population. It would be to advantage to have a more direct supply of food to the home population. A good case could be made for the wholesale trade. The fact that the wholesale trade was a good case could be made for the wholesale trade. The fact that the wholesale trade was a good case could be made for the wholesale trade.

Prohibitive North American Civilization.

A report from Port Arthur, Ontario, gives a tale of the most dire poverty of a large stone village which covers many acres on Lake Huron, an island in Lake Superior. The discoverer asserts that the builders of the village were, beyond a doubt, copper miners of ancient times. The village is situated on a rocky point, and the houses are built of stone and wood.
